Lawrence,

Thanks for taking our phone call this morning.

As discussed, Silver Star has over invested in the upcoming GSP sponsorship to the point of losing money. In short, we are over leveraged in this upcoming event and sponsorship.

We appreciate your proposal below, and given our meeting yesterday, understand the perspective of the UFC for access. However, it would be difficult for Silver Star to accomplish given the extremely short time frame and company's present cash resources.

But, we do want to show the UFC good faith, and send a clear message of Silver Star's desire to work as partners on this and upcoming events.

Accordingly, we propose the following:

(1) For UFC 94 and subsequent event access:

- a. pay Zuffa, LLC a per unit royalty of 5% (five percent) of the wholesale price for each Endorsed Product sold;
- b. royalties due Zuffa would accrue when Silver Star receives payment for the Endorsed Product sold;
- c. Zuffa, would receive payment within thirty (30) days of the end of each calendar quarter, for all royalties that have accrued during that calendar quarter;

(2) Include Merchandising at UFC sponsored events: we believe there is a win-win benefit in providing Silver Star the ability to sell "partnered" merchandise (e.g. GSP Ts) at each event given our proposed relationship; both Silver Star and Zuffa would benefit from the increased exposure and units sold at the event;

(3) Retroactive agreement: As mentioned by Luke during the call, Silver Star has sold approximately 8,500 GSP Ts at this point, and the agreement would be retroactive to include those Ts. Our goal is to ultimately sell far in excess of 50,000 units of each product through our distribution channels, and Zuffa would directly benefit from those sales.

Lawrence, in closing, it is Silver Star's strong desire in the future to be both a major sponsor with the UFC as well as a possible design partner under the UFC brand. And, as agreed, we want to move quickly and take the necessary initial steps to reach that point.

We look forward to your reply to our proposal above.

Vince Petronzio

PS: Luke couldn't resist one last request: he also requested 2 free tickets to each event!

Thanks for taking the time to meet with me today. After discussing the matter with our team this afternoon we feel a fair price for access to possibly our biggest event of the year is $50,000. As far as a longer term proposal goes, I will try to get you a proposal shortly. Obviously we need to deal with the short term issue first, so I wanted to give you an indication of our position on this weekend's event asap. Thanks and if you have any questions, please give me a call.
